LIABILITY WAIVER IMPORTANT You must READ and SIGN to participate!!

This form will serve as the general liability waiver that needs to be signed by all participants that will be taking a class/lesson and engaging in activities on the stated dates. I understand that surfing, and paddleboarding are dangerous sports, and that I could be killed or injured participating in such sport. I voluntarily assume all risks with participating in surfing, and paddleboarding, including risks arising from the negligence of Primal Surf LLC., its employee's, sponsors, and organizers, including the risk of contracting Covid-19 during instruction of surf training. Furthermore, I waive any right I might have, or will have in the future to sue Primal Surf LLC., its employee's, and sponsors of the stated class, lesson, or equipment rental, for any injury or illness related to my participating in it. I understand that the event may be covered using general photographic, film, and/or digital video cameras and may be televised. By signing this liability waiver, I release all rights or proprietary claims for the use of my image or voice to be photographed, videotaped or filmed for commercial or any other purposes. I authorize the unconditional use of my image or voice in any form while participating in this class or lesson.

Please list any medical conditions, disabilities, or special needs. We make every effort to safely accommodate the needs of all students, but some may require a private lesson for the safety of all involved. Failure to list your limitations may result in cancellation of lesson without refund. Instructors reserve the right to discontinue the lesson for the safety of all involved. Our surf/sup equipment does not support riders over 230lbs. We reserve the right to deny participation in the lesson or rental program due to physical limitations.

Generally, a private lesson is required to safely accommodate any student with special needs.

Parent or Guardian must accompany minors at the lesson.
